BACKGROUND AND REASONS FOR THE SOLICITATION

Ezra Dabah is the Company's largest shareholder, owning, together with his wife, approximately 16.6% of the Company's outstanding shares. Mr. Dabah has been a director of the Company since 1989. He also served as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer from 1991 to 2007.

Mr. Dabah resigned without cause as CEO of the Company on September 24, 2007 pursuant to mutual agreement with the Board. Following his departure as CEO in September 2007, Mr. Dabah became concerned about the future of the Company and a possible decline in shareholder value. He therefore began to consider alternatives with respect to his significant investment in the Company. Among the alternatives Mr. Dabah considered was the possibility of making an offer to acquire the Company. Mr. Dabah then began to discuss with potential private equity sponsors the possible acquisition of the Company. However, Section 203 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (the "DGCL"), which applies to the Company, restricted Mr. Dabah's ability to partner with a third party to acquire the Company, without the Board's prior authorization.

In October 2007, the Company announced that it had engaged Lehman Brothers to act as its financial advisor in undertaking a review of the Company's strategic alternatives to improve operations and enhance shareholder value, including potential organizational and operational improvements, a recapitalization, or other transactions.

In February 2008, Mr. Dabah requested that the Board authorize, pursuant to Section 203 of the DGCL, Mr. Dabah to enter into an agreement with Golden Gate Private Equity, Inc. ("Golden Gate") for the purpose of making a proposal to the Board to acquire the Company's outstanding shares.

Without addressing Mr. Dabah's request, on February 19, 2008, the Company announced that it had scheduled its 2008 annual meeting of shareholders for June 27, 2008. At the time of the announcement, the Company had not held an annual meeting since June 22, 2006, a period of nearly 20 months, and the date set by the Board represented an additional delay of over four months. Given the slow pace at which the Board was conducting its review of strategic alternatives and his interest in making a proposal to acquire the Company, Mr. Dabah determined that delaying the annual meeting until late June was not in the best interests of the Company or its shareholders. Therefore, on February 21, 2008, Mr. Dabah filed a complaint in Delaware court requesting that the court order the Company to hold its 2008 annual meeting within 45 days from the filing of the complaint. Mr. Dabah and the Company eventually reached a settlement of the matter which was announced on May 9, 2008. Pursuant to the settlement, Mr. Dabah agreed to dismiss his complaint and vote for the Company's slate of six directors (Louis Lipschitz, Joseph Alutto, Mr. Dabah, Charles Crovitz, Robert Fisch and Stanley Silverstein) at the 2008 annual meeting, and the Board agreed to conduct a bona fide sales process and approve Mr. Dabah's request for a waiver under Section 203 of the DGCL.

Mr. Dabah and Golden Gate thereafter participated in the Company's sales process and conducted a due diligence review of the Company. Despite Mr. Dabah's numerous requests for the Company to conduct a prompt process and respond to basic due diligence requests in a timely manner, the Company's sale process lasted for over nine months. Ultimately Mr. Dabah and Golden Gate determined not to submit a formal, binding acquisition proposal, mainly due to the weak debt markets, which had deteriorated while the Board extended its sales process over a nine month period. On February 5, 2009, the Company announced that its Board had completed its previously announced review of strategic alternatives. The review did not result in a sale of the Company.

On March 5, 2009, over Mr. Dabah's objection, the directors increased the size of the Board from eight to nine directors and appointed Norman Matthews to fill the vacancy created by the increase. Mr. Dabah objected to the appointment of Mr. Matthews to the Board because Mr. Dabah believed the unilateral expansion of the Board was inconsistent with the agreement between Mr. Dabah and the Company regarding the election of six directors at the 2008 annual meeting.

On May 5, 2009, Mr. Dabah delivered to the Company notice of his intent to nominate Messrs. Benaroya, Fingerman and Glickman for election as directors of the Company at the 2009 Annual Meeting and to propose a stockholder resolution that any provision of the Bylaws that is adopted by the Board and not the shareholders of the Company after March 5, 2009 be repealed.

On or about June 1, 2009, Mr. Dabah and his wife formed the Committee of Concerned Shareholders of The Children's Place for the purpose of conducting the proxy solicitation. Stanley Silverstein, Raine Silverstein, Barbara Dabah and Gila Goodman have joined the Committee because they support the election of Messrs. Benaroya, Fingerman and Glickman to the Board. Stanley Silverstein is Ezra Dabah's father-in-law. Raine Silverstein is Stanley Silverstein's wife. Barbara Dabah is Ezra Dabah's sister-in-law. Gila Goodman is Ezra Dabah's sister.

The Committee is concerned about the future of the Company and the ability of the incumbent senior management team and Board to sustain future growth and increase shareholder value. In particular, the Committee remains concerned with (1) the current Board's minimal stock ownership in the Company, (2) the lack of certain core competencies and experience on the Board, (3) the Board's failure to attract a permanent Chief Executive Officer, (4) the loss of key talent over the last 20 months and (5) senior management's failure to develop and implement sufficient short and long-term growth opportunities for the Company.

In stark contrast to the members of the Committee, who own approximately 21.8% of the Company's outstanding common stock, the current members of the Board as a group, excluding Mr. Dabah and Mr. Silverstein, own less than 1% of the Company's outstanding stock. While the directors are not legally required to own shares in the Company and otherwise have fiduciary duties to act in the interests of shareholders, the Committee believes shareholders would be better served by a Board that has a greater economic ownership interest in the Company. The Committee believes increased share ownership would align the Board's economic interests with those of shareholders. Interim CEO Charles Crovitz's total compensation for his role as interim CEO in fiscal year 2008 was $3,904,865 (including $519,416 in perquisites), which the Committee believes is excessive given his role as interim CEO and his lack of CEO experience. In addition, Mr. Crovitz received an equity award valued at approximately $1 million in February 2009. In the Committee's opinion, the economic interests of a majority of the current directors and Mr. Crovitz in building a new leadership team are not aligned with the economic interests of the Company's shareholders. While none of the Nominees currently owns any common stock of the Company, each of the Nominees has committed to purchase shares of the Company's common stock in the open market should they be elected to the Board.

Mr. Dabah is proposing the election of Messrs. Benaroya, Fingerman and Glickman as directors because he and the Committee believes they will bring to the Board the experience and talent necessary to help position the Company to deliver and sustain future growth and increase shareholder value. In contrast, Sally Frame Kasaks, Norman Matthews and Malcolm Elvey, the Board's nominees, in the Committee's opinion, lack the fresh perspective and vision that the Committee believes is necessary to guide a specialty apparel retailer such as the Company.

Ms. Kasaks, 64, was appointed Chair of the Board on an interim basis on January 31, 2007. Since that time, the Board has failed to identify and appoint a non-executive Chairperson to replace Ms. Kasaks. Mr. Dabah believes that in her interim role, Ms. Kasaks has not provided the Board with the direction, leadership and time necessary to resolve many of the difficulties that the Company has faced during her tenure, including identifying a permanent Chief Executive Officer to replace interim CEO Charles Crovitz. In addition, Ms. Kasaks currently serves as Chair and CEO of Pacific Sunwear of California, Inc., a West Coast-based lifestyle specialty retailer facing significant operational challenges. During fiscal 2008, Pacific Sunwear liquidated approximately 150 of its fashion-focused streetwear demo stores due to poor performance and recently announced that it anticipated closing an additional 35 to 50 underperforming stores each year over the course of the next three years. Although a company's stock price and performance can be impacted by a variety of factors, including the recent extreme volatility in financial and capital markets, the fact is that, since the appointment of Ms. Kasaks as Chair and CEO of Pacific Sunwear in May 2007 (she previously served as interim CEO beginning in October 2006), Pacific Sunwear's stock has declined approximately 81%. Pacific Sunwear was recently engaged in a proxy contest in which shareholders cited "disastrous performance" and called for Ms. Kasaks' immediate resignation. That proxy contest was ultimately settled. The Committee believes the challenges at Pacific Sunwear may distract Ms. Kasaks from her duties as Chair of The Children's Place's Board.

Mr. Matthews, 76, joined the Board less than two months ago. The Committee does not believe that Mr. Matthews brings to the Company the forward outlook and fashion perspective necessary to understanding and preserving the youthful and contemporary image unique to "The Children's Place" brand. In addition, Mr. Matthews served on the boards of several entities that filed for bankruptcy, including Levitz and Loehmann's, Inc. Mr. Matthews is also a director of Finlay Enterprises, Inc., which recently announced that it had substantial doubt about its ability to continue as a going concern.

Mr. Elvey, 67, has served as a director of the Company since 2002. Mr. Elvey is a venture capitalist focused on technology companies and his primary retail experience stems from his tenure at Metro Cash and Carry over 30 years ago.

The Committee therefore questions whether the Board's nominees are the right nominees for the Company and whether as a group they add value to the Company when compared to our Nominees. Each of Messrs. Benaroya, Fingerman and Glickman are highly-qualified and proven executives with extensive experience in key areas of the Company's business, including specialty apparel retailing, mass consumer marketing and branding and retail real estate. The Committee believes each of these individuals will bring much-needed insight and new and relevant perspectives to the Board for continued profitable growth.

Mr. Benaroya is currently Chairman of the Board of Directors of Russ Berrie & Company, Inc., a company that specializes in the design, import, marketing and distribution of infant and juvenile consumer products, and was formerly, until February 2009, Chairman of the Board of Directors of FAO Schwarz, Inc., a specialty toy retailer. Mr. Benaroya was also the Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer of United Retail Group, Inc., a specialty retailer of women's fashions, from 1989 until its successful sale in 2007. During Mr. Benaroya's tenure, United Retail grew to $462.1 million in net sales in fiscal 2006. Through his experiences as Chairman of the Board of Russ Berrie and FAO Schwarz, Mr. Benaroya has developed meaningful exposure to and understanding of the children's marketplace and the consumers that the Company targets.

Mr. Fingerman has over 20 years of marketing and brand management experience. He is currently the Managing Principal of Clairmont Ventures, a strategic consulting and investment advisory firm focused on transforming brands and businesses. Most recently, Mr. Fingerman served as President and Chief Executive Officer of privately-held R.A.B. Food Group, LLC (Manishevitz), one of America's leading specialty foods companies. Prior to joining R.A.B., Mr. Fingerman served as President of the U.S. Soup Division at Campbell Soup Company, the world's largest maker and marketer of soup. As President, Mr. Fingerman was responsible for the company's largest division, which generated three consecutive years of consumption growth for the first time in 18 years.

Mr. Glickman has over 35 years of specialty retail and real estate experience. He is currently Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Urban Retail Properties, LLC, a development, leasing and management real estate company, specializing in retail shopping centers with approximately 28 million square feet under management. Urban Retail Properties is the developer of over 75 domestic and international premier shopping destinations and mixed use products including Water Tower Place and 900 North Michigan Shops in Chicago, Copley Place in Boston, and the redevelopment of the Houston Galleria and Old Orchard Center in Skokie, Illinois.

More information about the Nominees can be found under "Proposal 1 - Election of Directors," beginning on page [ ] of this proxy statement and "Information About the Participants," beginning on page [ ] of this proxy statement.

If elected, Messrs. Benaroya, Fingerman and Glickman will, subject to their fiduciary duties as directors, work with the other members of the Board to take those steps that they deem necessary to maximize shareholder value. Specifically, if elected, the Nominees will work closely with all members of the Board to pursue the following plan of action:

1. Appoint a permanent CEO.

Since September 2007, the Board has claimed to be conducting a search for a permanent CEO to replace the Company's Interim CEO, Mr. Crovitz. In September 2007, a CEO search committee was formed to undertake the task of finding a new CEO. Mr. Dabah is a member of the search committee, but over the last 20 months no potential CEO candidate has been recommended by the committee for him to interview. In light of the failure of the Board to attract and retain a permanent CEO, at a meeting of the Board in August 2008, Mr. Dabah suggested that the Board consider Mr. Raphael Benaroya as a candidate for the permanent CEO position. Mr. Benaroya has over 25 years of experience in successfully leading public specialty apparel retail stores and until recently was Chief Executive Officer of United Retail Group, Inc., a publicly-traded, vertically-integrated, specialty apparel retail company. However, the Board declined to consider the suggestion on its merits. Mr. Dabah has not approached any other Nominee regarding the CEO position.

Additionally, Mr. Crovitz has commented that he has planned to be Interim CEO for 16 to 18 months, and some analysts believe the CEO search could take another 6 to 12 months. In the Committee's opinion, given his large compensation package, Mr. Crovitz has little incentive to speed up the process of hiring his successor.

The leadership void at The Children's Place has created uncertainty about the future direction of the Company, distracted management and, with no visionary leadership, caused the Company to underperform its potential. The Committee believes the Board must act immediately to appoint a permanent CEO who will, among other things, take all measures to retain key management personnel, reestablish a product and service-minded customer-centric culture, articulate a future vision for the Company and position the Company to sustain future growth. Mr. Dabah has engaged in preliminary discussions with Raphael Benaroya regarding the possibility of proposing that the Board appoint Mr. Benaroya as Chief Executive Officer of the Company. To date, Mr. Benaroya has not made a determination as to whether he is willing to be considered for the CEO position. If Mr. Benaroya determines that he is willing to serve as the Company's CEO, Messrs. Benaroya, Fingerman and Glickman, if elected, and Mr. Dabah will recommend to the Board that Raphael Benaroya be appointed Chief Executive Officer. The Committee believes that Mr. Benaroya would be a candidate of exceptional integrity and accomplishment with extensive corporate management experience in the retail industry. Mr. Benaroya has experience as a director of public companies, and based on his experiences has developed meaningful exposure to and understanding of the children's marketplace. The Committee is confident that Mr. Benaroya would provide the Company with the vision and leadership to ensure that the Company leverages its strong brand name and achieves its full growth potential. There can be no assurance that Mr. Benaroya would accept the CEO position if it were offered to him nor can there be any assurance that the Board would agree to appoint Mr. Benaroya as CEO. Moreover, there can be no assurance that the Board and Mr. Benaroya would agree to the terms of Mr. Benaroya's service as CEO.

2. Attract and retain key talent.

The Company has been in a transitional state for more than 20 months. Since the appointment of Mr. Crovitz as Interim CEO, the Company has experienced a number of senior level departures, all talented individuals who had long tenures with and expertise in The Children's Place brand. Some of these individuals left voluntarily and others left at the behest of Mr. Crovitz and Susan Riley, an Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the Company. The Committee believes that many of these departures have been due to the deterioration of the Company's energetic and collaborative culture established prior to the appointment of Mr. Crovitz as Interim CEO. The current Board has not been successful in filling these vacated positions and the Company is currently operating without a President, General Merchandise Manager and General Counsel. The Company's merchandising strategy is built on the offering of key basic items at exceptional values, complemented by fashion items and accessories to create a fully coordinated look. The success of a product-driven company like The Children's Place depends on its ability to attract and retain creative and enterprising individuals. Under Mr. Crovitz's leadership, the Company has suffered a loss of key management and creative talent, and the Company's remaining creative talent has had to endure a leadership void in inspiration and creativity. In addition, prior to Mr. Crovitz's appointment as Interim CEO, the Company developed a strong sourcing base for its products. By failing to retain key talent in this area, the Board and management are jeopardizing the Company's ability to continue to capitalize on the long-term relationships and efficient chain of supply that the Company has developed and which is known to be one of the Company's core competencies. The Board and senior management must initiate efforts to retain key team employees, rehire key talent that has left, and restore the stimulating, energetic and creative culture for which the Company was formerly known.

3. Position the Company for growth.

Since Mr. Crovitz's appointment as Interim CEO, the Company has not introduced sufficient new initiatives for the future growth of the Company. The Committee believes that the Board's inability to articulate future growth initiatives will have a long term negative effect on shareholder value. In order to maximize shareholder value, Messrs. Benaroya, Fingerman and Glickman will work closely with all members of the Board to:

- o Increase and accelerate the roll out of the store-within-a-store shoe concept by leveraging The Children's Place's strong brand attributes of high quality and value pricing. In the Committee's opinion, this will allow the Company to ultimately gain high single-digit market share in a fragmented shoe market.
- o Focus on eCommerce growth by setting the online store on a growth trajectory to exceed $300 million in sales by 2012, including the introduction of international shipping.
- o Roll out the small market store concept, which the Committee believes can yield an additional 300 to 400 stores in North America, over and above the Company's approximate 1,200 store potential.
- o Focus on Mr. Dabah's Big Box (15,000 - 18,000 square feet) vision. This vertically integrated concept that does not exist today would leverage The Children's Place's powerful brand attributes of fashion, quality and value and offer integrated, related and matching apparel and accessories, home furnishings, and shoes, with a selection of child development products, all under one roof.

The Committee and the Nominees believe the above actions will greatly improve the Company's short-term and long-term prospects and put the Company in the best position to achieve maximum value for all shareholders.

The Committee urges you to vote your GOLD proxy card FOR Raphael Benaroya, Jeremy J. Fingerman and Ross B. Glickman and FOR the bylaw restoration proposal.

PROPOSAL 1: ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

According to the Company's proxy statement, three Class III directors are to be elected to the Board at the 2009 Annual Meeting. The Committee recommends that shareholders elect Raphael Benaroya, Jeremy J. Fingerman and Ross B. Glickman as Class III directors at the 2009 Annual Meeting. Each of the Nominees has consented to being named as a Nominee and to serving as a director if elected. No member of the Committee has any preexisting social, business or professional relationship with any of the Nominees. If elected, each Nominee will serve for a three-year term and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified or until his earlier death, resignation or removal. If elected, each of the Nominees will be considered an independent director of the Company under applicable NASDAQ rules, other than, in the case of Mr. Benaroya, in the event that he is appointed as Chief Executive Officer of the Company.

The Nominees will not receive any compensation from the Committee or its members for their services as directors of the Company if elected. If elected, the Nominees will be entitled to such compensation from the Company as is consistent with the Company's prevailing practices for services of non-employee directors, which is described in the Company's proxy statement. If all the Nominees are elected to the Board, the Nominees, together with Mr. Dabah and Mr. Silverstein, will constitute a majority of the Board.

Background information about the Nominees, including the present principal occupation or employment and material occupations, positions and offices or employment for the past five years of each Nominee, is set forth below. Please refer to the Company's proxy statement under "Matters Requiring Stockholder Attention: Proposal No. 2 -- Ratification of the Appointment of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm" for a discussion of this proposal. PROPOSAL 3: BYLAW RESTORATION PROPOSAL

Mr. Dabah plans to present the bylaw restoration proposal for consideration at the 2009 Annual Meeting. The bylaw restoration proposal states:

"RESOLVED, that any provision of the Bylaws of the Corporation as of the effectiveness of this resolution adopted by the Board of the Corporation and not by the shareholders of the Corporation that were not included in the Bylaws of the Corporation, as amended through March 5, 2009 and as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 6, 2009, be and hereby are repealed."

The purpose of and reason for the bylaw restoration proposal is to prevent the incumbent Board from adopting any changes to the Company's Bylaws that could serve to limit the ability of the Nominees to pursue the best interests of the Company and its stockholders. If the incumbent Board does not effect any change to the version of the Bylaws publicly available in a filing by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 6, 2009, the bylaw restoration proposal will have no effect. However, if the incumbent Board has made changes since that time, the bylaw restoration proposal, if adopted, will restore the Bylaws to the version that was filed as Exhibit 3.1 to the Form 8-K filed by the Company with the SEC on March 6, 2009, without considering the nature of any changes the incumbent Board may have adopted. The bylaw restoration proposal will not preclude the newly-elected Board from reconsidering any repealed Bylaw changes following the proxy solicitation.

THE COMMITTEE STRONGLY URGES YOU TO VOTE FOR THE BYLAW RESTORATION PROPOSAL BY SIGNING, DATING AND RETURNING

YOUR GOLD PROXY CARD TODAY IN THE ENCLOSED POSTAGE-PAID ENVELOPE.

Abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted as present for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present at the 2009 Annual Meeting. Assuming a quorum is present or otherwise represented at the 2009 Annual Meeting, the three nominees receiving the highest number of votes cast will be elected. Assuming a quorum is present or otherwise represented at the 2009 Annual Meeting, each of the other proposals set forth in this proxy statement will be approved by the majority of the votes cast by the shareholders entitled to vote. Broker non-votes will not have any effect on the outcome of the vote on the election of directors or on any of the proposals. Abstentions will not affect the outcome of the vote on the election of directors, but will have the same practical effect as a negative vote on the proposal ratifying the appointment of BDO Seidman, LLP and the bylaw restoration proposal. Delaware law expressly provides for the authorization of proxies by electronic means. Accordingly, you may submit your proxy by telephone or the Internet. To submit a proxy with voting instructions by telephone please call the telephone number listed on the GOLD proxy card. Proxies may also be submitted over the Internet. Please refer to the GOLD proxy card for the website information. In each case shareholders will be required to provide the unique control number which has been printed on each shareholder's GOLD proxy card. In addition to the instructions that appear on the GOLD proxy card, step-by-step instructions will be provided by a recorded telephone message for those shareholders submitting proxies by telephone, or at the designated website for those shareholders submitting proxies over the Internet.

YOUR VOTE IS EXTREMELY IMPORTANT. THE COMMITTEE URGES YOU TO SIGN, DATE AND RETURN THE ENCLOSED GOLD PROXY CARD TODAY OR INSTRUCT THE COMMITTEE BY TELEPHONE OR VIA THE INTERNET TO VOTE FOR THE ELECTION OF THE NOMINEES.

As of the date hereof, the Committee has incurred approximately $[ ] of solicitation expenses.

Costs related to this solicitation of proxies, including expenditures for attorneys, accountants, public relations and financial advisors, proxy solicitors, advertising, printing, transportation and related expenses will be borne by Mr. Dabah. To the extent legally permissible, Mr. Dabah will seek reimbursement from the Company for those expenses if any of the Nominees is elected.

The Committee intends to deliver a proxy statement and form of proxy to at least the percentage of shareholders that will be required to carry the matters set forth in this proxy statement.
