Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On November 4, 2014, upon the recommendation of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of the Board of Directors (the "Board") of The Children's Place, Inc. (the "Company"), the Board appointed Stanley Reynolds as an independent director of the Company within the meaning of the Marketplace Rules of the Nasdaq Stock Market, LLC. Mr. Reynolds will serve as a Class III director, holding office until the annual meeting of stockholders of the Company to be held in 2015. Mr. Reynolds has also been appointed as a member of the Audit Committee of the Board.

Mr. Reynolds, 49, currently holds the positions of Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of 7-Eleven Inc., where he has responsibility for the management of all finance functions. This includes strategic planning, treasury, accounting, tax, corporate communications, procurement and internal audit. Mr. Reynolds joined 7-Eleven in 1997 and has held positions of increasing responsibility in the areas of finance, treasury and planning. He received his bachelor degree from Henderson State University and a master's degree in business administration from Vanderbilt University.

There is no arrangement or understanding between Mr. Reynolds and any other person pursuant to which Mr. Reynolds was appointed as a director of the Company. Mr. Reynolds will be eligible to participate in all non-management director compensation plans and arrangements available to the Company's other independent directors. Accordingly, on the date of his appointment as a director, Mr. Reynolds was granted time-based restricted stock units under the Company's 2011 Equity Incentive Plan (the "Plan") representing 501 shares of the Company's common stock, par value $0.10 per share, which shares are deliverable to Mr. Reynolds on the first anniversary of the date of grant, subject to the terms and conditions of the Plan.

A copy of the press release announcing the appointment of Mr. Reynolds as a Class III director of the Company is attached to this Current Report on Form 8-K as Exhibit 99.1.
